DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Claims 1-8 and 11-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Fukumoto et al. (6,622,908 B2). Fukumoto et al. teach a punching device comprising a die member having a plurality of die holes 54 and 61, a plurality of punches 52 and 53, an operating member 35, a drive means and a control means. See Figs. 1, 3, 4 and 5-8. Types of cams are best seen in Figs. 1 and 5-8. The following is the operating areas with respect to Figs. 6 and 7 in Applicant's Specification:

OPERATING AREAS IN APPLICANT'S FIG. 7	LOCATION OF CAM IN APPLICANT'S FIG. 6	FUKUMOTO'S OPERATING AREA
1	6A	Fig. 6b
2	6B	Fig. 6a
3	6C	Grooves at the right side of the punches 53
4	6D	Fig. 1
5	6E	Fig. 5a
6	6F	Operating member 35 moves slightly to the right from Fig. 5a.
7	6G	Fig. 5b

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed on 04/06/2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant's arguments with respect to the control means for moving the operating member to a first rest position or to a second rest position before the control means performs a punching operation are not persuasive. The step of moving the operating member to a second rest position (neutral position) before the control means performs a punching operation is inherent in Fukumoto since it is where a three hole punching process or a two hole punching process begins.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
